

TOGO GRATEFUL FOR RECEPTION

Japanese Hero Makes First Speech During Stay in United States.

VISITS NAVAL ACADEMY

Impressed With Completeness of Place Where Naval Officers Are Made.

Washington, D. C., August 7.—A brief speech, the first during his stay in this country, was made by Admiral Count Togo before the National Press Club, of Washington, to-night. The admiral spoke in Japanese, his remarks being interpreted by Lieutenant-Commander Taniguchi, his naval aide. He said:

"Since my arrival in this country, the President of this great republic has received me with the greatest honor and hospitality. Your government has extended to me innumerable courtesies and your fellow-citizens have given me the most hearty welcome. All these, I dare say, are more than I am entitled to, and I take them as meant toward my august sovereign and for his subjects. Nothing pleases me more than to take home the most happy remembrances of my visit to the United States.

"Gentlemen, may I ask to take this opportunity to convey to your countrymen, on behalf of myself, my feeling of profound gratitude and high appreciation of their hearty welcome."

Inspects Naval Academy.

Annapolis, Md., August 7.—Admiral Count Togo, Japan's foremost naval officer, to-day inspected the grounds and buildings of the United States Naval Academy here. His visit was in the nature of a Marathon tour, for his program made possible only a hasty walk and the most casual observation. In three hours, however, he saw the entire group of buildings, and declared the place where future naval officers of the United States are trained to be a most complete and comprehensive institution.

The party lunched at the house of Superintendent John H. Gibbons. The latter offered a toast to the Emperor of Japan, and Admiral Togo responded with one to the President of the United States.

Then, in a broken English, but intelligibly, the admiral toasted the Japanese graduates of the United States Naval Academy, who are now serving in the Japanese fleet, and who, the admiral hoped, "would strengthen the link of friendship between the United States and Japan."

The admiral and party later returned to Washington.

SHOT IN STRIKE RIOT

One of Three Wounded Men Probably Will Die.

Crockett, Cal., August 7.—Three men were shot and a half-dozen others were hurt by flying bricks in a fight between striking workmen and men and strikebreakers brought in by the California-Hawaiian Sugar Refining Company last night. An unknown Italian strikebreaker was shot through the groin and probably will die. Frank Crisp, a watchman employed by the company, and T. Cronin, a striker, were severely wounded. Constable James Fox and a force of deputies dispersed the mob. Two men were arrested.

HIS CONDUCT "REPREHENSIBLE"

Raleigh, N. C., August 7.—W. C. Warfield, of the World Publishing Company, to-night, after an investigation by the State Text-Book Commission, was found guilty of reprehensible conduct in attempting to form a pool to use $1,500 to secure some "friend," whom he declined to name, in the Department of Education of the State to secure the adoption of certain books. Chief Clerk Barwick, who had been referred to, was found not guilty. Warfield had approached other book men and used Barwick's name. The commissioner is to adopt books for use for five years in the public schools of the State.

SIFTING "SPY" STORY.

War Department Interested in Girl's Charges.

Washington, D. C., August 7.—The War Department, for the first time in many years, is perturbed over the case of an alleged spy in the army.

Captain James Watson, the army recruiting officer at Indianapolis, Ind., has advised the department that he holds affidavits charging Private Geo. Petr with being an Austrian secret agent. The department is considering the charges, with a view to determining a course of action.

This is the first case to be brought up under the law passed at the last session of Congress to prevent the disclosure of national defense secrets. The act is broad in its provisions, and is applicable to all attempts to secure military information improperly. Any one who endeavors to procure such data may be fined $1,000, or imprisoned for one year, or both. If any attempt be made to communicate any secrets of defense to a foreign government the maximum punishment is imprisonment for ten years.

TWO ARRESTS MADE

Cashier Confesses Bogus Robbery in Order to Conceal Shortage.

New York, August 7.—As a result of the alleged attempt last night to destroy the records of the Long Dock Mills and Elevator Company in Jersey City, for the purpose of concealing a shortage of $2,500 in the accounts of Samuel Brown, the cashier, Brown and Patrick J. Timmons, an expert accountant, are in jail there to-night under the charges of arson, conspiracy and manslaughter. The police hold a confession bearing Brown's signature, telling of his plans for the crime, and naming Timmons, his good friend, as an accomplice. Frank Walsh, known as "Lightning," the burglar who was hired to do the job, died to-day of burns received in trying to carry out the scheme.

Brown was arrested when he reported for work to-day. His employers told the police that experts had been examining the accounts during the previous week, and had set to-day for examining the books. Brown told the detectives that he had been short since January 1, and that Timmons had worked on the books, as a friend, for three months, trying to cover up his tracks. Brown's alleged confession says in part:

"About 1:30 P. M. Sunday I met Timmons in a saloon in Jersey City. We had been talking about destroying the books for the past two months, as I was short in my accounts. Timmons said he could get a man in Newark to do the job, and we took a trolley car to a Newark roadhouse to meet the man. Timmons left me there, but returned in half an hour with Walsh. The three of us took an automobile to Jersey City.

"About 9:30 we went to the office of the Long Dock Mills. I opened the door and the three of us went in. I then opened the safe door and took out three check books and the cash book. Walsh held the books over the gas jet and set them on fire. I watched him set the books on fire, then I left them to go back home. I did not know anything about the fire until this morning."

The police did not tell Brown, upon arresting him, that Walsh had died in his attempt. Instead, they tried to batter down his defense, and, failing, one of them finally said:

"Walsh died at 5 o'clock this morning."

"My God," gasped Brown, "I can't have a man's death on my soul."

Then he told his story.

Timmons was arrested near his home in Newark. Effort of detectives to elicit a confession from Timmons has been unsuccessful.

The safe was found intact, although the police, at first glance, thought that its doors had been blown from its hinges. There was no evidence of an explosion, the firemen say, but plenty of evidence to show that gasoline had been used liberally.

The books, however, although soaked with the fluid, were only charred about the edges.

When Walsh was found by the firemen with his eyes blown out and his clothing all but burned from his body, he said he had gone into the office, the door being open, to sleep.

He was smoking a cigarette, fell asleep and he supposed the cigarette set the place afire. At the hospital he was told that he would die of his burns.

"Now," queried a detective, "won't you tell us how it happened?" Walsh shook his head and straightened on his cot. It was his last act.

What Else is There, Madam, So Vital as Milk?

You insist that all other foods be utterly sterile. Why don't you insist on a germless milk? Why not a whole, rich milk?

If a child wanted raw meat you would quickly forbid it. But isn't the danger of germ infection many times as great in raw milk?

If water was germ-laden you would boil before drinking. But raw milk is a germ-breeder, and is always germ-laden. What do you do about that?

Careful people are coming to sterilized milk. And the best milk of that kind produced in America is Van Camp's rich Holstein milk.

Just Natural Milk

In the rich dairying districts of seven northern states we milk 30,000 cows per day.

They are pure-bred Holsteins, kept in model dairies. They are guarded by constant inspection.

Close to each dairy is an evaporating plant, conducted with hospital cleanliness. The milk fresh from the cows is brought to those plants and placed in a copper vacuum.

There we evaporate two-thirds of the water. And, because of the vacuum, the evaporating is done without a scalding heat.

Nothing is added—no sugar, no starch, no preservative. Nothing.

Caramel Ice Cream. Beat two eggs and add to one pint water and one pint of Van Camp's Milk. Put one pound dark brown sugar in a skillet, let it become a reddish brown, and pour it in the custard which is still hot. Let cool, pour in one pint more of Van Camp's Milk and freeze. It liked one cup chopped nuts may be added.

Write for our book of 131 recipes, including all sorts of ice cream.

Van Camp Packing Co., Indianapolis, Ind.

but water is taken out. When you replace the water you have a milk exactly the same as it came from the cow, save for sterilization.

Exceedingly Rich

This milk when evaporated is as thick as thick cream. It is so rich that you add one part water for coffee, for cereals or ice cream. It is 28 per cent solids, 8 per cent butter fat.

When you use it in cooking it gives a richness and flavor unknown from milkman's milk. The reason is this:

Milkman's milk always separates. The butter fat rises, and the solids fall. The milk which comes to your cooking is rarely more than a half-milk.

Van Camp's is whole milk. It has all the butter fat, all the solids belonging to the richest milk. Make one milk dish with it and find out what a difference this whole milk makes.

Saves About Half

If Van Camp's is reduced to the usual milk's richness the cost will figure about six cents per quart.

We save you the cost of the milkman's daily delivery, and that is more than the milk cost.

And we save you the waste. Van Camp's means a cow in the pantry. Rich milk or cream whenever you want it. All that you want, and no more. An opened can keeps until you use it up.

This saving in cost, plus the saving of waste, in the average home will cut milk bills in two. You can get the utmost in milk—pure, sterile, whole, rich milk—for less than you pay the milkman.

A $100,000 Milk

We have spent in seven years over $100,000 to bring Van Camp's Milk to its present matchless standard. We have employed for the purpose the ablest Swiss and Dutch experts.

The result is the finest milk produced in America—unexcelled by any milk in Switzerland or Holland. Yet it costs no more than common evaporated milks. It costs far less than milkmen charge for germ-laden milk from mongrel cows. A single day's use will make you forever a convert. You will always insist on Van Camp's.

The 16-oz. can—a full pint of Van Camp's—costs 10 cents. The 6-oz. can costs 5 cents. Your grocer has it, shipped from our nearest dairy. Ask him now to send you some. Know what good milk means.

VOTE NOT REACHED ON STATEHOOD

May Be Several Days Before Senate Acts on Measure.

Washington, August 7.—With the recall of judges' provision of the Arizona Constitution as the principal issue, the Senate took up to-day for final action the bill for the admission of New Mexico and Arizona into statehood.

By previous agreement the bill will be voted on before the close of this "legislative day," which, however, may be extended by recesses for several days. Indications to-night are that the vote will be reached to-morrow.

The test will come on the Nelson amendment to the House bill, the former allowing New Mexico to become a State, with its Constitution unchanged, while Arizona must strike out the provision by which judges can be recalled. The House bill requires that the voters of Arizona shall take a vote on the judicial recall question before the Territory is admitted, while in New Mexico an effort must be made by vote to change the Constitution adopted, so as to make it easier of amendment.

Vigorous speeches in opposition to the recall of judges were made to-day by Senators Root, of New York; Borah, of Idaho; Nelson, of Minnesota; and Crawford, of South Dakota, while Senator Poinsett, of Washington, defended it, declaring that the people of a State should have the right to say what sort of a Constitution they desired, provided it is not in conflict with the national Constitution.

"Didn't Know It Was Loaded."

Charlotte, N. C., August 7.—In the midst of a game of "horse shoes" at the home of James F. Eddings, a farmer living one mile from Beachland, this afternoon, Mr. Eddings was fatally shot by Preston Hannan, aged sixteen. Hannan says he merely intended to frighten Mr. Eddings and did not know the gun was loaded. The load took effect below the ear and almost severed his head from his body. Hannan is in jail.

News of Petersburg.

Times-Dispatch Bureau.

103 North Spotswood Street.

Petersburg, Va., August 7.

The Centre Hill property was under consideration in the Hustings Court again to-day. It came up on the notice served on Saturday on the Centre Hill Corporation, requiring the corporation to show cause why the trustees should not accept a private offer of $37,000 for twenty-nine lots of the property as a whole, which offer was deemed satisfactory and $12,000 above the assessed value of the lots. The trustees believe this offer, made in good faith, is more than the lots would bring if sold separately, and is more than the property would bring if put up at auction. The Centre Hill Corporation, however, thinks otherwise, and while not objecting to the sale of the lots separately, strenuously objects to their sale as a whole. It was on this objection that Judge West recently granted an injunction restraining the sale of the property as a whole, which injunction was subsequently dissolved by Judge Mullen.

To-day, when the matter was called, Colonel James Mann, counsel for the Centre Hill Corporation, read to the court an injunction granted by Judge R. H. Cardwell, of the Court of Appeals, restraining and enlarging the injunction granted by Judge West and enjoining and restraining the trustees from selling the property as a whole, but not in separate lots, said injunction to be effective for thirty days, or until September 5.

Willcox & Willcox, counsel for the trustees, immediately entered a motion for the dissolution of Judge Cardwell's injunction, which the court refused to do, not being willing, without due consideration of the merits of the case, to fly in the face of an injunction granted by a judge of the Supreme Court. It was, however, agreed that argument on the motion to dissolve should be heard this afternoon.

After hearing argument this evening in the motion to dissolve the injunction, Judge Mullen took the question under advisement, and will render his decision at 12 M. to-morrow.

Three Deaths.

Mrs. Jacob Rosenfeld, a native of Petersburg, and daughter of the late Isaac Robinson, died on Saturday at her home in Birmingham, Ala.

Patrick Rahilly, a native of Petersburg, a well-known printer, was drowned yesterday at Racine, Wis. He leaves brothers and relatives in this city and the body will be brought here for burial.

Mrs. Annie E. Tipton, wife of Charles E. Tipton, died on Sunday in her home, corner of Rowe and West Streets, after a long illness. She was thirty-six years old. She was the daughter of Mrs. Sarah E. Brintley, of Richmond.

General News.

The Petersburg Grays, after an eight days' encampment at Culpeper, Va., returned to the city last night. The boys are somewhat tanned by exposure, but say they had a fine time.

Fine rains have fallen in spots in this section during the last few days, but not in Petersburg. Down in Prince George county, in some portions, the fall of rain was heavy.

A protracted meeting, to continue through the week, was begun at Mount Sinai Church, in Prince George county, to-day.

A Home Recipe for Removing Wrinkles

(From Woman's National Journal.) Who will blame the modern woman for trying to look as young and attractive as she reasonably can? Why should she be placed at a disadvantage in numerous ways by wearing wrinkles, if she can avoid these hateful marks of advancing age?

Few women, however, know what to do to effectually rid themselves of wrinkles, or saggingness. None of the advertised preparations is satisfactory, and most of them are very expensive. But a very simple and harmless home remedy, which any woman can make, will work wonders where all the patent preparations fail.

Buy an ounce of powdered sassailla at any drug store. Dissolve the whole ounce in a half pint of witch hazel, and use it as a wash lotion. The results are practically instantaneous. Marked improvement is noticed immediately after the very first trial. Wrinkles and sagging are corrected and the face feels so refreshed and snug-like.

POLITICS IS NOT A WOMAN'S GAME

Hunnell, Kan., August 7.—"Politics is not a woman's game."

This is the decision of Mrs. Ella Wilson, Mayor of this town, who, since her inauguration, has had a continuous fight with the male City Council. They have not confirmed her appointments for city marshal or city clerk, and she has not signed any of the ordinances they passed.

Mrs. Wilson to-night, for the first time, admitted she would quit if she could, saying politics is not the place for a woman, but at the same time she turned on the members of the City Council and forced the members to listen to her. She will not quit unless forced to do so, she says.

During the last week Mrs. Wilson has conferred with Governor Stubbs, and he told her, she says, that if to-night's meeting of the City Council was not satisfactory he would aid her in having members of the Council ousted.

On the other hand, the element which is fighting Mrs. Wilson is talking of bringing proceedings to force her out of the office.

"You fellows evidently are not here for business," Mrs. Wilson told the Councilmen to-night, when the meeting opened. "You must get out or help me run the town." When one of the Councilmen attempted to ridicule her she made him quit and sit down.

"I suppose that you represent the will of the people of this town?" asked J. F. Richardson, when the Mayor vetoed an ordinance.

"Sit down," ordered Mrs. Wilson. "I am Mayor here."

Richardson sat down, and he did not interrupt the proceedings again.

The meeting to-night accomplished nothing except to pay for the repairs on the town pump, as the Mayor would sign no ordinances passed by the Council, and the Council would do nothing the Mayor wished.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Wilson telephoned to Governor Stubbs to begin ouster proceedings against the members of the Council.

"STRONG ARM SQUAD" BATTLES WITH NEGROES

New York, August 7.—The "strong arm squad" of detectives from headquarters and police reserves from three precincts battled to-night with 300 rioting negroes in Harlem, routing them and arrested thirty-five of the ringleaders. The riot followed an attempt to arrest a score of the blacks who were annoying women on the streets. During the encounter the police were bombarded with bricks, stones and beer bottles from the windows and roofs of nearby tenement houses. The fight was hand to hand and the negroes outnumbered the police five to one, but the blues used their night sticks generously with telling effect.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Magdalena Flannhart. Mrs. Magdalena Flannhart, widow of E. A. Flannhart, died at 2 o'clock this morning in the Memorial Hospital, in the eighty-fifth year of her age. REFUSES TO GIVE VOTE OF CENSURE

London, August 7.—A vote of censure of the government for having obtained from the King a pledge to create if necessary sufficient peers to pass the veto bill was rejected by the House of Commons to-night by a majority of 119. The motion was introduced by Arthur J. Balfour, leader of the opposition, and its defeat is regarded as having failed to improve the Unionist cause.

The gravamen of the opposition charge against the government was that Premier Asquith had taken advantage of the King's inexperience to bring about an abuse of the royal prerogative by securing the guarantee before the last election. Mr. Asquith easily disposed of this charge by showing that the ministers had acted entirely properly constitutionally. The result was that after the Premier's speech the debate on the Unionist side virtually collapsed.
